Mahoney Flocks by Himself and Votes for Dan Burns—Reception

Over Attachés.

(BY THE TIMES SPECIAL WIRE.) SACRAMENTO, Jan. 12.—(Special Dispatch.) Hon. George C. Perkins was today returned to the Senate of the United States on first ballot by the practically unanimous vote of the Republican members of both houses of the Legislature, voting separately. In the Assembly he received 47 votes and in the Senate 27. The only Republican who failed to vote for him was Senator Mahoney, the disgruntled San Francisco boss, who voiced his spleen by voting for Dan Burns. Sam Shortridge's name was not even presented in either house. The victory could not have been more sweeping, and friends and foes are alike expressing satisfaction that it is untainted with suspicion of corruption or venality.

Senator Stratton made the nominating speech in the Senate, and the nomination was seconded by Senator Bulla of Los Angeles, who made an able speech, and by many others. No minority candidate was presented in the Senate.

In the Assembly, Judge Waymire had the honor of presenting Senator Perkins' name, and in his opening remarks he said that he did it by the Senator's express request. Malcolm of Santa Clara, Valentine of Los Angeles, Bettman of San Francisco, Hill of Humboldt and North of Yolo made announcing speeches. T. V. Cator was nominated by the Populists and the names of Congressman James G. Maguire, W.
W. Foote and J. J. Dwyer were presented by the Democratic members.
When the result of the ballot was announced it was greeted with cheers.

Both the Senate and Assembly chambers were thronged with visitors, many ladies being present. The galleries and lobbies were crowded, and when the result had been made known there was a rush for the telegraph offices by the friends of Senator Perkins to send messages of congratulation to him.

Tonight a reception was held at the Golden Eagle Hotel by Senator Perkins' friends, who have conducted his campaign. Speaking from the platform after a few graceful words of greeting and congratulation he introduced Col.
J. P. Saylor, who has labored heart and soul for Senator Perkins' re-election. Col. Jackson made a stirring address, and was frequently interrupted by hearty applause.

Senator Bulla paid a glowing tribute to Senator Perkins, and Judge Waymire, Senator Withington, Assemblyman Wright and many others followed with fitting remarks and expressed their satisfaction that the will of the people had been carried out. Besides the members of the Legislature, many old friends of the Senator were present at the gathering.

The Shortridge air-ship has disappeared. Sam's quondam supporters have an uncomfortable feeling that they have been the victims of a huge practical joke. The 1500 Shortridge buttons imported last week to be worn by the friends of "the coming Senator" have been unostentatiously deposited in waste baskets and cupboards.
Today's issue of the Call is now looked upon as a literary curiosity. It arrived half an hour before Senator Perkins' reelection, and announced in flaming headlines that his forces were on the run and that Sam was a victor.
Revelations of extravagance in the organization expenses of the Assembly are likely to be followed tomorrow by a sensational sequel. A scandal has been discovered in connection with the pay-roll of the temporary attachés.
Every effort is being made to hush the matter up, and as yet the facts are known only to a few persons. It is probable, however, that the demand

STILL AT THE WHEEL.

for investigation will be made tomorrow on the floor of the Assembly.

A few days ago a business man of Oakland chanced to see his own name in the list of temporary attachés of the Assembly, with the statement that he had received $25,000 one week's pay.
Greatly surprised, he wrote at once to Assemblyman Wright, the member from his district, stating the circumstances, and saying that he had not been near Sacramento, and had not applied for a position. He asked Wright to investigate. This the Assemblyman did at once, and he discovered that the name of his constituent had been placed upon the temporary pay-roll, and that some third person had been drawing pay in the name of the Oakland man.

Mr. Wright was very indignant when he found that his friend's name had been used as a cloak for such a barefaced steal of public funds. It was evident that the fraud could only have been perpetrated with the knowledge and connivance of some member or official of the Assembly. Wright will probably lay the whole matter before the Assembly tomorrow, and demand a most rigid investigation, if

SENATOR GEORGE C. PERKINS.

the facts prove as stated, other disclosures may follow, for the pay-roll, stuffed with the names of useless attachés, has already excited grave suspicion.

Capt. W. H. Seaman, at one time registrant of land titles at Los Angeles, later a citizen of Colorado and for several weeks a resident of San Francisco, is the latest petitioner for public pay.
He wants to be State Librarian and has been assiduously button-holing the legislators since his arrival.

A meeting of the Republican State Central Committee was held tonight, and the following letter, of which a copy was given to the press, has been addressed to President-elect McKinley:
"Hon. William McKinley, President-elect of the United States, Canton, O.— My Dear Sir: The State Central Committee of this State, composed of one member from every Assembly district and constituting the most thoroughly representative Republican ortioned as a Senatorial candidate, placed Senator Perkins in nomination in the House. Sam Shortridge had also been a candidate, but withdrew from the contest this morning.

The nomination of Perkins was seconded by Malcolm of Santa Clara, Bett-man of San Francisco and Hill of Humboldt. Bridgeford nominated Maguire; Emmons of Kern nominated Ca-tor as the choice of the Populists; Sanford of Mendocino nominated W. W.
Foote.

The vote in the Assembly was as follows: Cator, 11; Foote, 10; Maguire, 10; Dwyer, 9; Perkins, 46. Number of votes cast, 79; necessary to elect, 41.

A message was received from the Senate to the effect that Perkins had received 27 votes, and that it had been decided to meet the Assembly at 12 o'clock to cast a joint ballot for Senator.

SENATORIAL CAUCUS.
Dickinson Wanted to Help Dispense Pap—Which He Won't.
(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS WIRE.)

SACRAMENTO, Jan. 12.—The Republican Senators held a caucus this evening regarding the resolution setting the date for the election of trustees of the Senate Library. The Senate fixed the date as February 3, which was changed by the Assembly to January 21. It was decided to ask the Assembly to fix the original date. It was also decided to exact a pledge from the nominees for the positions that every Democrat or appointee of a Democrat be removed from his position in the library.

Senator Dickinson was of the opinion that as the Legislature had elected a United States Senator, the Republicans who had done the work should control the Federal patronage of the Coast. He moved that a committee of three be appointed to act in conjunction with a like committee of the Republicans in the Assembly to consult with Senator Perkins as to the distribution of the Federal patronage.

The motion brought on a prolonged debate in which Senators Dickinson, Andrus, Voorhees, Wolfe and Smith participated on the one side and Stratton, Gillette and others were arrayed on the other. The motion was finally lost only nine supporters being found to favor it.

The San Francisco delegation in the Senate was permanently organized today, with Senator Mahoney as chairman and Senator Percy Henderson as secretary. Senator Braunhart strenuously opposed the selection of Mahoney, nominating each Democratic Senator in turn as the one proposed denied the honor. He finally nominated himself, but did not get a vote.

THE LABOR BUREAU.
Assembly Committee in Favor of a Southern Branch.
(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS WIRE.)

SACRAMENTO, Jan. 12.—The Assembly Committee on Capital and Labor, Chairman Denney presiding, met tonight to consider some of the bills presented by Labor Commissioner Fitzgerald. The two measures considered were, one providing for the reorganization of the labor union, and another for the establishment of free employment agencies throughout the State.
The labor side of the question was represented by Labor Commissioner Fitzgerald, Cleve Dam, his deputy, and W. MacArthur, editor of the Coast San Francisco Journal.

The Journalist of the representative of the labor union, the committee decided to report favorably on the bill for reorganizing the bureau. This will give a labor commissioner to the southern part of the State.

There was a spirited argument over the bill to establish free agencies. An attorney named Wentworth, who has once a member of the Assembly was present in the interests of the San Francisco employment agencies. Deputy Dam told how unfortunate laborers in search of work had been robbed by unscrupulous agents who put all sorts of jobs on the men, whose poverty made them defenseless. Wentworth asked for further time until he could get his clients here and the consideration of the bill was postponed until next Monday night, when it is expected, there will be a big crowd in attendance.

The Shock Felt for Many Miles.

PITTSBURGH, Jan. 12.—A magazine of the Columbia Dynamite Company, a branch of the Pennsylvania Torpedo Company, limited, at Shamokin, Pa., eighteen miles from here, blew up about 10 o'clock. The explosion completely demolished the building and tore a large hole in the ground. The conclusion was felt several miles away, and the buildings in the immediate vicinity were badly shattered. At Shamokin, a public school building was partly demolished. A panic among the pupils ensued, but no one was hurt. Economy, Coraopolis and other towns report that the shock broke the windows. Cause of explosion is not known.

Two men and two women were killed at the plant, and one man injured. The men killed were
L. D. STICKNER, superintendent, JAMES MCLOSKEY, a workman.
The names of the women are not known. The injured man was Walter Craze. He is likely to recover. The building was a two-story frame structure. It was blown to atoms, and the report was heard thirty miles away.

OPPOSITION COMBINE.
Inside Facts About the Alleged Salmon-Packing Trust.
(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS WIRE.)

CHICAGO, Jan. 12.—Regarding the story from Astoria, Or., that the big salmon packers are forming a trust and that C. E. Norris of Chicago is conducting the negotiations, Vernon Booth of the Booth Packing Company, which controls large canning works on the Columbia River, said this today:
"Mr. Norris is an employee of ours.
He has gone to the Pacific Coast to try to make some different arrangements with the salmon fishermen, but no such combination as the telegram would indicate is being formed, nor is any such object in view. We have not yet heard from Mr. Norris. The fact is the fishermen have a very strong union and put the price of salmon so high that canning fish has been an unprofitable industry, and the canners are determined they will not pay the exorbitant prices heretofore demanded.
We are endeavoring to form a combination against the Fishermen's Union so we may continue in business and furnish a market for the salmon caught by them. That is all there is to Mr.
Norris's mission."

The California Makes a Sensational and Pathetic Speech in Reply to Maguire—The Latter's Remarks are Expunged from the Record.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS WIRE.)
WASHINGTON, Jan. 12.—The House today witnessed a sensational sequel to the remarkable attack made by Mr.
Johnson of California on Editor Hearst.
Mr. Johnson and Mr. Maguire of California were the antagonists today.
Their words were the result of the publication in the Record, as a part of Mr. Maguire's remarks, comments on the former's speech last week, in which Mr. Maguire defended Mr.
Hearst and, without the mention of Mr. Johnson's name, detailed some matters in the early life of the latter when he resided in Syracuse, N. Y.

Mr. Johnson got the floor on a question of privilege. He was at times dramatic. He denounced Mr. Maguire's attack on him as wanton and cowardly and told the story of his indictment for forgery and how he had gone out to California to rear a new home and make a new name. He described his success, and how he had been able to pay back to the world a debt which he then explained that this was an old story in California, as he had always avowed it when he ran for office.

Then, with bitter invectives, he paid his respects to Mr. Maguire and Mr.
Cooper of Wisconsin, who last week characterized his attack on Mr. Hearst as cowardly.

Mr. Maguire replied to Mr. Johnson in a sarcastic vein. He told how he had attempted to secure time in which to reply to Mr. Johnson, but that debate and had been unable to do so, and how he had printed his defense of a man unable to secure a hearing for himself. He asserted that Mr. Johnson for whining because his attack went home to him, and said he would have thought of the grief and anguish he was bringing to another before he assailed Mr. Hearst.

Mr. Poole of New York, who represents the Syracuse district, made a brief statement in vindication of Mr.
Johnson. His motion to expunge Mr.
Maguire's remarks from the Record was adopted after Mr. McMillin had ineffectually attempted to delay action, but a similar motion to expunge Mr.
Johnson's remarks about Mr. Hearst was defeated by 32 to 94. This incident overrode the interest in the House proceedings.

Just before the adjournment, Speaker Reed announced the appointments to places on committees made vacant by the death of ex-Speaker Crisp. Mr.
Bailey of Texas was appointed to the vacancy on the Rules Committee and Mr. Boatner to that on the Ways and Means. Early in the day the Speaker sustained the point of order against the motion to recommmit the Pacific Railroads Funding Bill.

Some lively political sparring marked the last hours of the Senate session today. The For Homestead Bill was under discussion and Mr. Allen found opportunity for questioning Mr. Vilas of Wisconsin concerning the differences of last fall. It brought out much difference of opinion as to whether the Democratic platform was made at Chicago or at Indianapolis.
Mr. Vilas declared that there was almost nothing in the Chicago platform not identical with the Democratic government. He insisted that the Indianapolis platform was founded throughout in Democracy. Mr. Allen characterized the Indianapolis platform as a "rump affair." The controversy became very lively and took a wide range.

The Homestead Bill was further debated, but a vote was not had. Mr.
Vilas attacked it as a measure giving away $25,000,000 of the national commonwealth to the benefit of the government. He insisted that the Indianapolis platform was founded throughout in Democracy. Mr. Allen characterized the Indianapolis platform
as a "rump affair." The controversy became very lively and took a wide range.

FIFTY-FOURTH CONGRESS.
(SECOND SESSION.)

WASHINGTON, Jan. 12.—SENATE—Senator Hill of New York introduced a bill making the terms of postmasters four years, including fourth-class postmaster, as well as those who now hold their office at the pleasure of the appointing power. Mr. Hill referred to the removal of postmasters when Mr.
Stevenson was First Assistant Postmaster-General, and also when Mr.
Wanamaker was Postmaster-General.

A new policy had been pursued by the present administration. Whether it many harmful to the party or not, he would not say, but all postmasters had been allowed to serve out their terms unless their names were on the list of nominees. At present there were 250 nominations pending before the Postoffice Commission, held up for one cause or another.
Mr. Chandler asked: "Since the 3d day of November last have there not been removals made for political purposes?"

Mr. Hill. Yes, half a dozen.
Mr. Chandler. Have there not been many more?

Mr. Hill. From the clamor one would think there had been a thousand.
Mr. Chandler. From the complaints that come to me I am informed that many postmasters have been removed because they voted for Bryan.
Mr. Hill said that his bill provided that when a postmaster had served a few years and a vacancy occurred, the man appointed should only serve out the unexpired term, and would give a Republican four years and a Democratic successor four years, without having charges trumped up against him. The bill went to the Committee on Postoffices and Postroads.

Something more than two months ago Dan Stuart made a trip to Carson City, where he sought out Atty.

Gen. Beatty, who has since died, and held several secret consultations with him. Stuart remained in Carson City for several days, and just before leaving engaged the services of a surveyor with whom he went to the Carson City race-track. Inside the track enclosure they surveyed and staked off ground for a large building. A reputable man of Nevada, who was a close personal friend of Beatty, says he held a conversation with the late Attorney-General before the latter was taken sick and was informed by him that a

ALL ALONG THE LINE.

The tramps in the Santa Ana Jail are too many for the officers to herd. The fact that two or three have escaped from custody is not a matter of so much regret as that they were guilty of carrying off in every instance a ball and chain belonging to the county.

Santa Ana is working its tramps and consequently the weary wagons are giving that place a wide berth. But few seem to be heading that way and those who are already there are trying to get away as hard as they can, even at the risk of being made targets for the loose bullets that are being thrown out by guards around the jail yard.

The Randsburg camps are growing rapidly, and the new town of Johannesburg is booming. Six-horse Concord coaches will be running from Mojave in a few days, and a railroad probably will be built within a few months. The mines are making poor men rich, and rich men richer, and there is no sign of pinching or petting out. Randsburg seems to be one of the big mining districts of the country.

Riverside has taken a decided step in advance by the creation of a street-tree commission, which shall have charge of all matters pertaining to the planting and care of trees on public thoroughfares, and the ornamentation of the streets. The system of tree-planting, the choice of cleanly varieties and the proper care, watering and pruning of street trees is so much an affair of public concern that it should be regarded by special officers.

The falseness of the statements that have been published in the eastern press to the effect that consumption has become epidemic among the native population of Southern California, is shown by the December report of the Health Department of Los Angeles, from which it is seen that the twenty-two deaths from pulmonary consumption are divided as follows: Natives of Los Angeles, 1; natives of the Pacific Coast outside of Los Angeles, 3; from other parts, 18, of which latter 72 per cent. had lived here less than ten years.

San Diego has a simon-pure specimen of a brave "new woman." This fair girl astonished the County Clerk by applying to him in person for a marriage license for which she paid her $1 as readily as an heiress would pay for a silk dress. No one asked why the man did not buy the license. That was nobody's business. For every one knew that "new women" theories have raged violently in the bay 'n climate region, and a practical exemplification of these theories is bound to come sooner or later, of course. And then, come to think of it, why shouldn't a woman buy a license?

Santa Monica is a little wearied of the "bonus game," which has become one of the most annoying nuisances of the day, and is not breaking her financial neck to induce Ancient Orders of Horse-collar Heroes and Worshipful Sir Knights of the Corner Grocery to honor the town with their effulgent presence this year. The merchants are trying to figure out why they should pay a lot of hard peacocks to strut about the town for a week and make a show of themselves, when the peacocks import their provender and pay for nothing that they can get free. The "bonus" proposition is a pernicious invention, and has wrecked more towns than it has helped.

WRIGHT THE WRONG MAN

AN EXPERT MINER MISTAKEN FOR A DESPERADO.

Detective Oliver Jumped at Conclusions and Arrested Wright on a Warrant for a Man Named as John Doe Cook.

Al P. Wright, who was arrested at Pico by Detective Oliver upon a warrant calling for the arrest of John Doe Cook, has been discharged by the grand jury of San Bernardino county. One Cook was suspected of having committed a murderous assault upon Martin Sherry at Chino, and Sherry alleged that Eugene Woodbury was with Cook when the assault was made. Sherry's story led the detective to believe that Woodbury and Cook would be found together, and having learned that Wright had gone with Woodbury on a prospecting trip, he assumed that Wright and Cook were but one person.

Wright is an expert miner, and before his prospecting trip with Woodbury had been working as foreman of the St. Elmo mine near Randsburg. He had concluded to try his luck at Pico, and was found there by Oliver, who arrested him without difficulty on the warrant for Cook. Wright laughs at the detective's tale of how the arrest was made, and tells quite a different story. He says he knew Oliver was an officer and supposed him to be looking for somebody, but had no idea any officer was looking for him, and went to bed without any uneasiness. Oliver awakened him in the morning, took him aside and showed him the warrant and his badge of authority. Wright said he was not John Doe Cook, but consented to accompany Oliver to San Bernardino to clear up the matter. Wright says he had no weapons and never carries them, and therefore is not pleased by being described by the detective as a desperado. At San Bernardino Sherry saw Wright and declared that he was not the man who assaulted him. Sherry said he never had seen Wright before. The testimony evidently satisfied the grand jury that a mistake had been made and that Oliver had "taken the wrong pig by the ear" when he picked up the miner for a bad man.

HIS WOODEN LEG.

THREE SOUND FEET AND ONE THAT CLUMPS.

Pretty Water Spaniel with an Artificial Foreleg That He Handles as Naturally as Life—A Canine Aeronaut.

Much amused and sympathetic attention was attracted yesterday in the streets of Los Angeles by the sight of a pretty water spaniel frisking gaily along on three nimble little pads of his own and one small wooden leg that had just been strapped on by the surgeon. The Spaniel is "Jack," the particular pet and pride of R. Hawkins, an aeronaut, who is now staying in Los Angeles. Jack is just 2 years old, and in spite of his misfortune is a most cheerful and optimistic little dog, who uses his remarkable beauty and intelligence as a means of cultivating the friendship of every man, woman and child who comes within hailing distance. He has been a familiar figure on the streets for some time, an active bunch of silky brown curls flying briskly around on three legs with the other poor little broken prop held up in a pitiful way.

When in Cleveland, O., about eighteen months ago Jack suffered the great misfortune of his life. He was only six months old, a fat little bundle of jollity that had already become well-nigh indispensable to his master. One day Mr. Hawkins was sitting in front of a grocery store, feeding Jack with peanuts, his favorite delicacy. Jack was having a lovely time when he saw another dog on the opposite sidewalk and wanted to tell him about it. Mr. Hawkins called him back and he came flying alas! just in front of an electric car. The poor puppy was rolled up by the life-guard and his master thought it was all day with Jack until the car sped on and he saw a pitiful little object limping toward him on three wobbly legs holding up a crushed and bleeding paw.

As tenderly as might be Mr. Hawkins examined the poor little leg. To save it was out of the question so the man whipped out a sharp knife and amputated the foot at the joint. Jack bore the operation like a hero slitting up and holding his paw as though he understood fully that the added pain was meant to relieve his suffering. When he had bound up the wound, Mr. Hawkins took Jack in his arms and carried him to a surgeon, determined to spare no effort to save his pet. The surgeon pronounced the amputation as the only thing that could have been done to help the poor little beast, and bade Mr. Hawkins take off the bandages and let the puppy cure himself. It was wise counsel, for Jack and another sympathetic puppy used their active little tongues upon the wound, and such good effect that it soon healed.

Jack learned to use his three legs almost as well as the other, and grew up into unusually intelligent doghood. He is the inseparable companion of his master and has accompanied him in many of his balloon ascensions, going up in the giddy basket without a whine and coming down by the parachute, to which he was fastened by means of a stout leather harness with a ring at the back.

Thinking that Jack deserved all the modern appliances Mr. Hawkins had him fitted with the little wooden leg, which was put on yesterday for the first time. Jack accepted it gravely and with no effort to adjust himself. He uses it as a prop when he sits down and seems to realize that it is a convenience. In a few days he will use it in running as naturally as the other three.

MISS WILLARD'S PLANS.

Her Campaign Work Has Been Postponed for the Time Only.

So much doubt has been created about Miss Frances A. Willard's future plans, and especially her proposed visit to the Pacific Coast, by the constantly recurring reports of her ill-health and incapacity to carry on her work with the W.C.T.U., that Dr. Cordelia A. Greene, Miss Willard's physician, has issued over her signature a contradiction of the current rumors. Dr. Greene says that Miss Willard has had no relapse, but has improved constantly since her return to the United States. She has given up the campaign work in California originally mapped out for this winter, because she has found this work so exhausting in the past. At the same time she is discharging her official duties as usual, with the exception of secretary and two stenographers, and is taking careful measures to uphold her general health. It is still possible, however, that she may visit California before long.

The report of the twenty-third annual convention of the National W.C.T.U. has been received at the headquarters of the local organization. It gives the reports and minutes of the convention in full. The secretary of the Los Angeles union of the W.C.T.U. reported yesterday that $24 had been subscribed to the Armenian fund, of which $22 had been forwarded to New York by one desiring to subscribe can send contributions to the secretary of the W.C.T.U. at Temperance Temple.

A Trip Through Ireland.

Hon. Frank C. Davis gave an illustrated lecture on "A Trip Through Ireland on a Bicycle" last evening at the Y.M.C.A. Hall. The entertainment, which was under the auspices of the Altar Guild of St. John's Church, proved a very delightful affair, and was attended by a large and appreciative audience. Mr. Davis gave a most interesting account of his three weeks' tour through Ireland, describing in vivid language the people, the castles and ruins, the local scenery and the quaint legends connected with the various places of interest. He dwelt especially upon the famous Lakes of Killarney, fascinating his audience with wonderful word-pictures of the beauties to be seen there. The stereoscopic views included about one hundred pictures, which, with the exception of four portraits, had been taken by the lecturer himself. Mr. Davis spoke appreciatively of the perfect roads he found all through his trip, and said that while he often encountered up-hill work, there was always a fine coast down the other side to reward his efforts.

Booth Squared Up.
David Booth, against whom several complaints have been sworn out lately for obtaining money under false pretenses, has escaped punishment for his misdemeanors by paying his obligations. Booth has been giving checks on various banks in the city, where he has had no funds on deposit, and is fortunate to get off so easily.

Filed a Demurrer.
Hiram D. Glasener, indicted for making a false affidavit as a notary, was arraigned yesterday in the District Court and filed a demurrer to the indictment.

Admitted to Practice.
M. W. Conking was yesterday admitted to practice in the United States District Court of Southern California.

Trial to Recover a Little Girl's Re-

Larrabee Too Ill to Stand Trial for Embezzlement.

At the City Hall yesterday Chief Glass was elected to succeed himself without a dissenting vote, and was endorsed by numbers of the most prominent men of the city. Fifty applications for positions on the police force were received and filed. A number of applications for liquor licenses and transfers of licenses were received and acted upon. The Street-Naming Committee met in the afternoon and the Fire Commissioners made a tour of inspection of the fire-engine houses.

At the Courthouse yesterday there was the usual grist of legal business. Judge Shaw made a decision restraining the Board of Supervisors from diverting the waters of Rubio Cañon into Eaton's Cañon waterway. The Spencer trial was resumed in Department Four. The trial of George Larrabee for embezzlement was postponed on account of the illness of the defendant. A trial to recover little Manuela Ornelas's property rights was begun in Department Six.

LIQUOR LICENSES.

POLICE COMMISSIONERS MEET IN REGULAR SESSION.

Fifty Applications Received for Positions on the Police Force—The Parkhurst Society Protest Postponed for Two Weeks.

Chief of Police Glass was elected yesterday, to succeed himself, by the Board of Police Commissioners without a dissenting vote. For some time rumors have been current that some opposition to the reappointment of Chief Glass was developing, but, if there was any truth in the report, the hostile element failed to show itself openly.

There was some delay in the Mayor's private office before the regular meet-Hostkille was referred to Chief Glass for investigation. The question of revoking the license of J. E. McDowell, proprietor of the White Wings saloon, upon the representation of the Parkhurst Society, that he had been found guilty of violating the midnight closing ordinance, was brought up in connection with J. E. McDowell's application that his license be transferred to E. J. McDowell. It will be remembered that J. E. McDowell and E. J. McDowell were joint proprietors of the White Wings saloon.

The report of Tax and License Collector Gish showed that three liquor licenses for the month of January were unpaid. These are the licenses held by Charles J. Flynn of No. 110 West Alameda street, Charles Janette of No. 650 Upper Main street, and Savage Bros. of No. 406 North Main street. The last two were ordered revoked, as the places were closed. In the case of Flynn, P. McNary, owner of the building, appeared and asked that one month's license be omitted, for the reason that the place had been recently repaired, and the saloon was not at present in operation. The rebate was allowed on Commissioner Forman's motion.

The application of Thomas M. Badger, who is employed by the Agricultural Department, to carry on business for self-protection was granted. The application of C. T. Miller was denied.

A letter was received from Mrs. Thomas Jones, asking that A. C. Vignes, a former policeman, be obliged to pay his bill due her; but, upon the application of Chief Glass that Vignes had not been connected with the police department for two months, no action was taken.

C. W. Blake endorsed H. I. Blaisdell for appointment as an officer without pay. The matter was referred to the Chief of Police. The recommendation of F. M. Fowler as a regular officer by Telfair Creighton was filed.

About fifty applications for appointment on the police force were received and ordered filed. The following is the list of applicants:

CHIEF GLASS RE-ELECTED.

This ended the routine business, and the election of a Chief of Police was called up as special order.

Commissioner Forman put in nomination the name of Chief J. M. Glass, who was re-elected by a vote of 10 to 0. The roll-call showed that the four members of the board and Mayor Snyder voted in the affirmative. Chief Glass, who was present, thanked the board in a few brief remarks, and assured them that he would perform his duty honestly, conscientiously and to the best of his ability. In support of Chief Glass of the department have been of the most efficient character, we respectfully urge upon your honorable bodies the necessity of retaining the said Chief of Police, John M. Glass, in his present position. Very respectfully yours,

The board then adjourned to meet in regular session next Tuesday, January 15, at 2 o'clock, p.m.

A Tour of Inspection.

Fire Commissioners Vetter, Kuhlert, Sabich and Wells, together with Fire Chief W. T. Moore, Assistant Chief E. R. Smith and City Electrician Francis E. Smith, made a tour of inspection yesterday morning, for the purpose of inspecting all the engine houses and their equipment.

Property-owners Protest.

Eliza Griffin, T. V. Johnson and George Irvine, property-owners on Bixel street between Sixth and Seventh, have filed a statement that both sides of Bixel street have been sidewalked with cement according to city specifications excepting one lot, which they declare is an injustice to the owners of the property. They thereupon petitioned the Council to order a cement sidewalk constructed on both sides of Bixel street between Sixth and Seventh, except those portions already sidewalked.

Street-naming Commission.

The street-naming commission met yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock in the committee-room at the City Hall. Charles Forman, F. J. Eaton, W. J. Washington, T. W. Gleason, Secretary Dana Burks were present. The afternoon was devoted to considering desirable changes in the names of streets, and to the consideration of a single name for such continuous line of streets as are now burdened with a variety of names. At the present rate, it will take about one month to complete the work mapped out.

A great many communications have been received by the commission from persons who expect to be affected by the recommendations of the commission. The commission adjourned to meet at 3 o'clock Thursday afternoon, January 14.

[AT THE COURT HOUSE.]

THE COUNTY ENJOINED.

RUDEL BEATS THE BOARD OF SUPERVISORS.

Judge Shaw Decides That the County Fathers Have No Right to Divert Rubio Cañon Waters into the Eaton's Cañon Wash.

The improvements contemplated by the Board of Supervisors in the Rubio Cañon drainage district will have to be abandoned. The board passed an ordinance some weeks ago authorizing the construction of a ditch to carry off the water from the Rubio Cañon into the Eaton's Cañon wash. A rancher named Rudel who has spent considerable money in setting out an orchard and improving land owned by him in the Eaton's Cañon basin, objected. He set up the contention that the extra amount of water that would come down the Eaton's Cañon basin by the proposed diversion of the Rubio Cañon waters, would ruin his place. He could see no reason why the Supervisors should cause to be done to him the very damage they aimed to avert from property-holders in the Rubio Cañon water shed.

Rudel obtained a temporary injunction some time ago, and Judge Shaw yesterday morning granted the permanent injunction. Some of the most eminent legal talent in Los Angeles county was employed in the case, and the whole scope of riparian law was gone into. Following is a brief of the opinion delivered by Judge Shaw:

"The evidence in this case shows that under natural conditions, if the water of the Rubio Cañon wash ever reaches the channel of the Eaton's Cañon wash, even in times of flood, that the ditch which the defendants are constructing is completed, the amount of water which will be discharged from Rubio Cañon into Eaton's Cañon will be very considerably increased. As the water naturally flows it spreads out and is mostly lost in the porous soil before it reaches Eaton's Cañon. If the ditch is made it will be kept in a narrow channel and substantially all of it will be carried into Eaton's Cañon. It is clear that the major part of this increase will be carried down the stream and have the effect of adding a like amount to the volume of water in the Eaton's Cañon wash. At the point where it passes over the plaintiff's land. A considerable stream runs there in times of flood, as the stream is now supplied, and as the absorptive capacity of the wash must be exhausted in order to carry the stream at any point, must increase by that much the size of the stream at all points in its course below the point of addition. The burden of the plaintiff's land will therefore be increased if the proposed plan is carried out. The evidence shows that such increase will in all probability cause serious injury to plaintiff's lands.

"If the water in question is regarded as mere surface water, and not a water course, then I am of the opinion that the defendants have no right to make any artificial channel which will have the effect to discharge it upon the land of the plaintiff in greater quantities than the water would be under natural conditions. The rule in this State is that on the one hand surface water cannot be backed up on the land above to the detriment of the lower owner in greater quantities than would otherwise flow thereon.

"If the wash be regarded as a water course, the result is the same. The proprietor of land abutting a water course is entitled to have the water run therein as it has accustomed to run under natural conditions, without either increase or diminution in the quantity by artificial means. The right to enjoin the construction of a ditch to enjoin an injury to his estate caused by taking water from the stream. In either case he may enjoin the commission of the act if it is reasonably probable that it will cause material injury. It is not necessary to show that the injury will be inevitable.

"The court then held that the Supervisors have no right to divert the water as contemplated with-out purchase or condemnation of the property that would be damaged thereby.

DAUGHTER AGAINST FATHER.

Little Manuela Suing to Recover
Her Property.

The most important case that the new Superior Judge, M. T. Allen, has had to sit upon since his elevation to the bench, came up for trial in Department Six yesterday. It is an action brought by Manuela Ornelas, a minor, by her guardian-at-law, George D. Blake, against Ygnacio Ornelas, Angel M. Ornelas, Frank J. Martin and Laura Martin, his wife, to recover title to the north half of lot 5, block 32, city of Pomona.

All the parties to the suit are Pomona people. The plaintiff, in whose behalf the suit is brought, is an exceedingly handsome twelve-year-old girl, daughter of Angel M. Ornelas, one of the defendants. Manuela, it seems, through the death of her mother, had some property left her, which it is alleged has been dissipated through the unlawful acts of her father and others.

The complaint sets out that Ygnacio A. Garcia, August 9, 1883, became indebted to the little girl for $2500, for which amount he gave his promissory note secured by his mortgage on the property above mentioned. February 18, 1890, Garcia deeded the property to Angel M. Ornelas, the girl's father, subject to the mortgage incumbrance. Instead of paying off the mortgage, Garcia executed a release and conveyance for money and negotiated a sale of the property to Frank J. Martin. The Martin family alleges that Ornelas and Garcia entered into a conspiracy to defraud the little girl out of her interest in the property, and did so by Ornelas executing a release and conveyance of the mortgage, February 18, 1890, and five days later, deeded the property to Garcia, who then deeded the property to Martin.

All this was done, the complaint alleges, without the knowledge of the plaintiff or her guardian-at-law. The court is, therefore, asked to annul all the transactions and to restore plaintiff's rights in the premises, with judgment for $2500 with interest, attorney's fees, etc.

Main explanation of his part of the transaction by contending that he understood Ornelas's release of the mortgage to be a release of the mortgage by him as guardian of his daughter, notwithstanding the fact that no authority was conferred upon Ornelas by any court to make such a release.

Judging by the progress made yesterday it will take several days to complete the trial. Many witnesses will be examined, and the lawyers on each side are determined to make a hard fight for their clients.

THE SPENCER TRIAL.

Defendant Testifies to Her Relations with Her Husband.

The Spencer trial came on again yesterday in Department Four, after several days' postponement. Depositions as to A. H. Spencer's mental soundness at the time he deeded so much property to his wife were read, as were also several letters written by him to his son James during the later years of his life, tending to show his competency to do business for himself.

The event of the day came when the defendant, Mrs. Anna P. Spencer, was put on the witness stand to testify in her own defense, giving evidence without hesitation. Never once did she falter or say anything that might jeopardize her case.

Her evidence was mostly in regard to the properties involved, her separate estate at the time of and after her marriage, and the manner in which her husband came to execute deeds to her. She also testified as to her amicable relations with her aged spouse, and the domestic happiness that existed under their roof.

Plaintiff's counsel made few interruptions, and the case was given for cross-examination, which will begin some time today. Mrs. Spencer was still under direct cross-examination when court adjourned till 10 o'clock this morning.

LARRABEE IS SICK.

Alleged to Be Too Ill to Stand Trial
for Embezzlement.

With the case of George Larrabee was called for trial on the charge of embezzlement, in Department One yesterday morning, the defendant, who has been out on bail, did not respond. He was represented by counsel, however, who explained that their client was too ill to come to court. A physician who had visited him testified as to his being laid up with an attack of a gripe.

The prosecution was rather skeptical as to Larrabee's illness, and hinted that it was only a subterfuge to gain further postponement of the trial. The prosecution have come all the way from San Francisco, one of whom is advanced in years, and it is feared that bodily infirmities might prevent his attendance at the trial at a later date if a postponement for any length of time were had.

Attorney Shankland, who is to assist Deputy District Attorney McComas in the prosecution of the case, said in his opinion Larrabee had no defense and no desire to have the case come to trial.

Judge Smith granted a continuance till 10 o'clock this morning, with the understanding that he would send a doctor of his own choosing to wait upon the defendant to see how he really is.

Larrabee was agent for the Mutual Life Association of New York, and was accused of embezzling $150 paid to him as a premium on a policy written by him.

CRIMINAL NOTES.

Byron's Sentence Postponed—New Information Filed.

In Department One yesterday the sentence of A. Bert Byron, convicted of criminal libel, was continued till January 19.

A. L. Alford was arraigned for obtaining money by false pretenses, and was allowed till January 15 to plead.

Information was filed against Alfred Gallardo, charging him with petty larceny.

Edward J. Jesse for passing a fictitious check; and Pablo Rochero, for assault to murder. The prisoners will be arraigned today.

OVER-WORKED MOTHER.

A Mythical Personage Well-known to Public Prosecutors.

Forger W. E. Kramer's motion for a new trial will come up for hearing before Judge Smith at 9:30 o'clock this morning. His attorneys, Oliver and Hough, have filed a bill of exceptions in which they charge improper conduct on the part of the jury and object to remarks made by Deputy District Attorney McComas in his argument, with reference to Kramer's record before he came to this country.

Kramer is under conviction for forging W. A. Henry & Co.'s name to a check for $22.68. When specimens of Kramer's writing were produced, the jurors pointed out to a fellow jurymen the similarity between the specimens of the act of the defendant submitted by Judge Smith cautioned the jurors not to talk to each other about the matter while in the jury box. Defendant's attorneys have been successful in this incident on to bolster up their motion for a new trial, alleging that the jurors argued the case among themselves while sitting in the jury box.

The jurors have filed an affidavit denying this allegation, and Deputy District Attorney McComas has filed one in denial of his language. He explains his reference to defendant's record at the East by saying:

"The affiant was only replying to some extent to what defendant's counsel assumed in their argument to be the merit and high standing of defendant, somewhere back East, and to the somewhat lengthy and exceedingly pathetic appeal of the learned counsel of defendant, on account of the alleged anxiety and earnest solicitude of some imaginary 'old mother' of the defendant, which same 'old mother' has been pressed into service on behalf of defendants in about nine-tenths of all the criminal cases tried in this court."

Mr. McComas thinks the "poor old mother" is made to do service too much in appeals for clemency to criminals. He thinks Kramer's counsel should have given the old lady a rest.

AT THE COUNTY JAIL.

Arrivals and Departures—John Hone Pays His Fine.

Among the arrivals at the County Jail yesterday was Ygnacio Calderon, brought in from Calabasas by Constable Harvey Branson, for assault with a deadly weapon. Two vagrants from Downey and one from Azusa complete the list.

John Hone, who as brutally beat an old man at Pomona and was fined $175 or 175 days in jail, was released on payment of $157, the residue of his unpaid sentence. Hone's brother purchased his liberty.

Five prisoners who had served their time were released.

Martin Mesher, an insane prisoner, was taken to Highland and George Stover was discharged by order of the court.

FLOTSAM AND JETSAM.

Miscellaneous Driftwood Thrown into the Courts.

DIVORCE MILL. Judge Smith yesterday granted a decree of divorce to Hilma L. C. Fearn, from John R. Fearn. The case had been pending in Department Three for some time, but was transferred to Department One. Eliza E. Bell has brought action against James Bell for divorce on the ground of desertion and failure to provide. Abraham Brodgen sues for divorce from Harriet Brodgen on the ground of cruelty.

SEWER ASSESSMENT. John E. White sues D. D. Adams and Milo Case to enforce payment of a sewer assessment for $30.30 against lot 3, block B, Shafter, San Francisco's subdivision of the Montague tract.

ADMITTED TO PRACTICE. Lucius Kurtz Chase was yesterday admitted to practice by Judge Allen, on motion of W. J. Trask, Esq.

DRUNK, BUT NOT CRAZY. Judge York yesterday dismissed the insanity proceedings against George Stover, but the prisoner was held for disturbing the peace. Stover is addicted to the drink habit and when under the influence of liquor makes life unbearable for his wife. Judge York intimated that he might commit him to the Highland asylum on a charge of inebriation, but not on an insanity complaint.

NEW TRIAL DENIED. Judge Smith yesterday denied the motion for a new trial of the case of R. A. Newlyn against H. W. Williams.

PROBATE OF WILLS. Harry S. Bruner yesterday filed a petition for the probate of the will of Anna B. Matthews, who died at Pasadena, December 21, leaving an estate valued at $500. William M. Hatt filed a petition for the probate of the will of Mary Matthews, who died January 2, leaving an estate valued at $2700.

GUARDIAN FOR MINORS. Mrs. Priscilla R. Griffith has filed a petition to be appointed guardian of her two minor children, Guy T. and Jessie May Griffith.

SWANSON'S ESTATE. F. M. Kelso, Public Administrator, has applied for letters of administration upon the estate of John Swanson, who committed suicide a few days ago. The estate is valued at only $200.

TO QUIET TITLE. G. A. Robinson has summoned Jennie F. Maunel, Theres M. Tessareck and Elizabeth Maunel to appear as defendants in an action to quiet title to lots 11 and 12 of the Wendenburg city tract, and lot 8, block B of the Highland View tract, Mrs. Tessareck's title to which is alleged to be fraudulent.

CONTRACTOR'S LIEN. Robert Sherer sues Pierre Davin et al. to enforce payment of a lien against lot 25, Davin & Jullien's subdivision of lots 6 and 7, block 37, Hancock's survey, for streetwalking, East Fourth street, between Chicago and Fresno streets.

NO LONGER INSOLVENT. Judge York yesterday discharged W. L. Kestner from insolvency.

[AT THE U. S. BUILDING.]

HE GOT HIS WISH.

Charles Browning Given a Term at San Quentin.

Charles Browning, the hobo who destroyed a mail-box merely for the sake of gratifying a consuming desire to go to jail, had the wish of his heart granted yesterday with a vengeance. He was brought before Judge Welborn for sentence, and His Honor, instead of imposing a greater or less number of days in the County Jail, informed Mr. Browning that he was destined to adorn the interior of San Quentin for a term of eighteen months. This sentence will be likely to act as a damper upon other tramps who imagine that looting the mail-boxes of Uncle Sam is a safe and easy passport to comfortable lodgings for the rainy season.

FULL VOTE WANTED.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE ELECTION TAKES PLACE TODAY.

Incumbent Upon All Members to Come Out—An Important Matter Made to Turn Down the Regular Ticket—Political Feeling Strong.

Today, from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m., is the date set for the annual election of officers and directors of the Chamber of Commerce. The ticket is the same as when presented by the Committee on Nominations, with one exception. W. T. Smith has declined to serve as chairman of the Committee on Mines, and his name has been replaced on the ticket by that of C. A. Marriner. The official ballot, as thus amended is as follows:

President, Charles Forman; first vice-president, J. S. Slauson; second vice-president, John F. Francis; treasurer, R. J. Waters.

Chairmen of committees, who, by virtue of their office, comprise the board of directors, are: Commerce, W. C. Patterson; Manufactures, John D. Hooker; Immigration, T. L. Duque; Lands, F. Q. Searcy; Education, C. A. Marriner; Ways and Means, J. R. Newberry; Statistics, Fred L. Allen; Law, L. A. Groff; Membership, E. F. C. Klocke; Hotels, G. T. Johnson; Parks, Z. D. Mathews.

For a number of years there has been no opposition to the regular ticket submitted by the Committee on Nominations to the members of the Chamber of Commerce assembled in annual meeting for the purpose of considering nominations. For this reason, the vote has nearly always been so light that elections may be said to have gone by default.

This year it is most important for the best interests of the organization that a full vote be cast. Reliable information has been received that an entirely new ticket is to be sprung at the last moment for the purpose of putting into power a certain clique very much alive to the political and financial advantages to be derived from controlling the Chamber of Commerce. A still hunt has been going on under the direction of this clique ever since the adjournment of the regular ticket, and it is believed that an attempt will be made today to rush the election in favor of the political faction.

As no proxies are allowed, it is most important that a full vote should be polled. In the event of only twenty-five votes being cast, as has been the case, it would be easy for the opposition to take possession of the election and sweep things before it by bringing in forty or fifty men prepared to vote the opposition ticket.

If the scheme is allowed to go through, by reason of the negligence of the great majority of members, it will result in a complete reorganization of the working force of the Chamber of Commerce, and the shaping of its influence to serve certain political ends instead of furthering the general welfare of Los Angeles.

NEW INCORPORATIONS.

TERRIFIC TRIBULATIONS.

DEAN PECK PREDICTS TUMULTUOUS TIMES FOR THE WORLD.

Christian Alliance Preacher Finds Ominous Things in Scripture. Jewish Prophecy Foretold the "Crime of Eighteen-seventy-three."

Dean Peck spoke for one hour and a half yesterday afternoon at the First Congregational Church, and the signs of our day, which in the light of scripture, he said, indicate the near return of Jesus Christ to reign upon the earth. He said: "One-fourth of all the Old Testament is prophetic of the coming age of Messiah's personal visible reign, and both sections of God's word give signs by which the watchful ones may understand that the last days are upon us. The land of Palestine is the geographical pivot, the Jew the personal, the afflictions of the land and the people were threatened of God to continue seven times, that is, seven times-periods of scripture chronology, amounting to 350 years. Dating from the dethronement of Judah's last King, this time expires in 1928. The scripture also shows that this time of Israel's downfall is the time of the Gentile. Gentile supremacy began with Nebuchadnezzar, and by the same reckoning would terminate in 1898.

"During the intervening thirty years a time of terrible tribulation is foretold. We see all of the elements and forces arising and conspiring before our eyes. Israel is awaking to new national life, Palestine and Jerusalem are being repopled, Jews are being converted in increasing and startling numbers. Turkey still holds Palestine, but with rapidly relaxing grip. Meantime the other nations are arising and training for a general tumult, which statesmen like Gladstone and Bismarck declare cannot be long postponed. Scripture foreshows great warfare and consequent famine, pestilence and anarchy in the brief period of the great tribulation.

"But before this lesson of destruction descends, the Lord will have come into our heavens to receive his watchful, faithful, separated ones, to sit down at the marriage supper and to receive appointments in the new age of dominion with Him on earth.

"There is also the clearest social, economical and ecclesiastical signs. The last days are depicted as a time of universal, restless travel, of unprecedented educational development, of unparalleled amassing of wealth in the hands of a few and the widening separation of classes. Even the degradation of silver, just accomplished by the last elections, is foretold. Also the present state of Christianity is minutely foreshown. No study is so arousing, purifying, hope-giving as that of this theme, enlightened by the Spirit who, with omniscient foresight, portrayed the march of events through the prophets, with Christ and His kingdom on earth as the grand focus."
